About Us

Every big thing has humble beginning. Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya at Haripal, Hooghly (W.B.) too started its journey in its own small way in the year 1966, after being affiliated to the University of Burdwan in order to cater to the need of the adjoining rural community. It was started with the benign intention of imparting value based education on the initiative undertaken by the spirited freedom fighter, Pandit Dharanath Bhattarcharya. It was under his visionary leadership that a society known as 'Vivekananda Samsad' was formed in order to celebrate the centenary year of Swami Vivekananda. The Samsad started functioning on and from January 12, 1963 and its activities were mainly aimed at the socio-cultural and educational upliftment of the adjoining localities. It organized fund collections as well as land acquisition with the objective of establishing a college and Vivekananda Mahavidyalaya was formally opened at Haripal on the 8th day of August, 1966. Gradually, the college earned reputation as a graded seat of learning and has been able to provide almost 5000 students not only from the different parts of the district of Hooghly but also from the adjacent districts of Howrah and Burdwan.

The college has been offering 16 honours courses and 18 general courses in different subjects under BA, BSC and BCOM stream. The college has also been providing a self-financing professional course in BCA. The college has been equiped with 102 faculty members and an effective office administration.

So far as the achievements of the college are concerned, the College was the University Champion of Inter-College (non-Govt.) Football Tournament held in 2018. In 2019 the College has been awarded with the First prize in District Level Youth Parliament Competition. The College is awarded for best performance in "Kanyashree Prakalpa" for the year 2019-20 in Hooghly District. 150 students of the College, out of which 45% are from SC, ST, OBC-A & B category, got selected for getting IT training to be imparted by TATA Consultancy Service (TCS) in 2021 under Youth Employability Programme (YEP)-2021.
